The London Gazette.

From Saturday July 14, to Tuesday July 17, 1753.

Leghorn, June 18.

SEVERAL Hurricanes have happened along our Coaſt in the Beginning of this Month, in which ſome Veſſels have been loſt; amongſt which it is ſaid there were two Barbary Corſairs, which periſhed, with their Crews, within the Latitude of the Iſle of Corſica. The Treaty of Commerce, lately concluded between their Imperial Majeſties and the Duke of Modena, with Regard to their reſpective Dominions in Italy, is not yet publiſhed; in the mean Time our Merchants are impatient to know if it contains any Thing relating to the new Port of Lavenza, the Building of which has given them great Uneaſineſs. By our laſt Advices from Lombardy and Piemont, the Produce of Silk in thoſe Parts was likely to be much greater this Year than it has been for ſeveral paſt.

Madrid, June 19. Their Catholick Majeſties are ſtill at Aranjuez, where they intend to continue till towards the Middle of next Month. The King has been pleaſed to grant to Count de Benagiar, the Intendancy of the Province of La Mancha, and the Government of the City of Almagro. Don Prudent Antonio de Palacios, a Member of the Council for the Indies, &c. died here laſt Wedneſday, in the Seventy Firſt Year of his Age.

Madrid, June 20. The frequent Rains we have had here from the Beginning of this Month, have changed our Fears of a bad, into the Hopes of a good Harveſt; and the Price of Bread in this Capital is conſiderably diminiſhed.

Naples, June 19. Their Majeſties and the Royal Family continue in perfect Health at Portici, and partake of the Diverſions which this Seaſon affords. It is thought the Court will remain there during the Remainder of the Summer, and that their Journey to Caſerta will not take Place this Year. The King has diſpoſed of the Poſt of Grand Maſter of his Houſhold, vacant by the Death of the Prince d'Arragona, in Favour of the Prince de Francavilla, Grand Maſter of the Queen's Houſhold, who is ſucceeded in that Poſt by the Prince de Riccia.

[Price Two-Pence.]

Florence, June 19. The Regulation in Agitation for ſome Time paſt, in order to put upon a better Footing the Revenue and Commerce of this Grand Dutchy, will, we are aſſured, be put in Execution immediately after the Arrival of Count Richecourt, Preſident of our Council, from Vienna.

Stockholm, June 25. The King, who has been for ſome Time paſt indiſpoſed, is now perfectly recovered; and the Queen continues to advance very happily in her Pregnancy. Some Days ago a Body of 1200 Men, drawn out of the Regiments of Cronhielm, Hamilton, Cronhiort and Heſſenſtein, were embarked at Carlſcroon, in order to relieve the Garriſons in Finland. The French Ambaſſador has obtained Leave from his Majeſty, in the Name of the King his Maſter, to have a Pyramidical Monument of Stone erected near Torneo, at the Extremity of the Gulph of Bothnia, to preſerve the Memory of the Aſtronomical Obſervations made there ſome Years ago by M. Maupertius, and ſome other French Aſtronomers.

Stockholm, June 29. The King has been pleaſed to appoint Field Marſhal Count During, Governor of this Capital, vacant ever ſince the Death of Baron Fuchs. The Regiment of Foot Guards, and the Corps of Cadets, who are encamped in the Neighbourhood of the Caſtle of Ulrichſdahll, have performed their Exerciſes before his Majeſty, who appeared entirely ſatisfied therewith.

Vienna, June 27. Laſt Sunday M. de Majo, Miniſter from the King of Naples to this Court, had his firſt publick Audiences of their Imperial Majeſties at Schonbrun, and the next Morning had his Audiences of the Archdukes and Archduchеſſes. We hear from the Camp at Thein in Bohemia, that a ſmall Magazine there had accidentally blown up, and that ſeveral Soldiers were thereby dangerouſly wounded.

Vienna, June 30. The Court was Yeſterday very brilliant on Account of St. Peter's Name-Day, which the Archduke, third Son of their Imperial Majeſties, bears. The Abbé Groſs a Teſta, who, who, jointly with Count Montecuculli, has executed here ſome important Commiſſions on the Part of the Duke of Modena, ſet out a few Days ago on his Return to his Court. Their Imperial Majeſties, willing to give that Miniſter Proofs of their Approbation of his Conduct, ordered him, before his Departure, a Preſent to the Value of 12,000 Florins.

Parma, June 28. The Infant Duke our Sovereign continues at Colorno, whence his Royal Highneſs goes from Time to Time to Sala, to take the Diverſion of Hunting.

Copenhagen, June 30. His Majeſty, the Queen, and the young Royal Family, return To-morrow to Friedenſburg, and are to dine with the Queen Dowager at Hirſcholm.

Dreſden, July 1. The Dutcheſs Dowager of Courland, and the Dutcheſs of Saxony-Weiſſenfelds, after a Stay of about three Weeks at this Court, are ſet out from hence, the firſt on her Return Home, and the other for Toplitz, to uſe the warm Baths of that Place. Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, his Britannick Majeſty's Miniſter, returned hither from Vienna ſome Days ago. Two Deputies from Thorn in Poland are arrived here, on Account of the Difficulties ariſen about the Building of the Proteſtant Church in that Town.

Berlin, July 3. The King's Reception from Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deſſau, in his Paſſage through Stratgard, was ſo agreeable to his Majeſty, that he has been pleaſed not only to expreſs his Satisfaction on that Occaſion, but to preſent his Highneſs with a Diamond Ring, computed to be worth 2000 Crowns.

Berlin, July 4. The Queen continues her Reſidence at the Palace of Schonhauſen, where her Majeſty has begun the Uſe of ſome Mineral Waters. Prince Ferdinand is gone to viſit his Regiment at Ruppin, where it is in Garriſon. The Major General de Meyering is returned from Carlſbad, whether he went to uſe the Baths.

Hanau, July 6. The Duke of Urſal arrived here laſt Monday Night from Bruſſels, with a numerous Retinue, and proceeded the next Day on his Journey to Vienna, whence he propoſes to wait on their Imperial Majeſties to the Camp of Kittſee in Hungary.

Hague, July 8. On Friday her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante was preſent at the Deliberations of the States of Holland and Weſt-frieland; which Aſſembly ſeparated Yeſterday.

Hague, July 12. The Baron de Borſſelen is returned hither from Zealand. Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Governante, and their Serene Highneſſes the Prince Stadtholder, and the Princeſs Carolina, will ſet out next Wedneſday for Dieren, Part of their Baggage being already ſent thither.

Bruſſels, July 9. The Deputies of the State of Flanders, who are returned hither, have had laſt Week ſeveral Conferences with the Marqueſs de Botta d'Adorno. It is reſolved to finiſh, without Delay, the Works relative to the Canal of Bruges; as likewiſe the Rebuilding of the Sluice of Schlick.

Theſe are to give Notice, That the Poſt will go every Night, (Sundays excepted) from London to Tunbridge Wells, and from Tunbridge Wells to London, to begin this Night and to continue, during the Summer Seaſon, as uſual.

By Command of the Poſt-maſter General,
